Last spring's change in provincial funding prompted an update to the approach with which students receive the services of a Speech Language Pathologist or Occupational Therapist in Chinook's Edge schools.

COVID-19 Update

Chinook's Edge remains diligent in mitigating risk and keeping families and stakeholders updated, which is increasing confidence in the division's pandemic response and resulting in many Remote Learning students returning to in-school learning.

Career Highs

After extensive research and discussion made it clear that students would be best served under the umbrella of traditional high schools, the Board passed a motion that will see students and staff from Chinook's Edge career highs transition into the neighbouring traditional high school to continue providing their programming alongside access to these broader resources. More information is available in Celebrating Chinook's Edge.

Inclement Weather

As winter proceeds into what is traditionally the coldest months, Chinook's Edge reminds school communities to be ready for Inclement Weather days.

Kindergarten Registration

Online Kindergarten registration for the 2021-2022 school year opened on January 11, and the Board is pleased to welcome the youngest members to the Chinook's Edge school community.

Delivering learning far and wide

As the Spruce View School administration team presented their Education Plan to the Board recently, as all schools are scheduled to do, Trustees continue to be proud of the continued impact of the school's unique online course sessions.
